

This typical two story three bay by one room center stair house is exactly the same as the others in Cecil County. The Pearce Family owned it for a large part of the 19th century. The Martenet Map (1858) and Lake, Griffing and Stevenson Atlas (1877) list a Mrs. J. Pearce and Annie W. Pearce respectively.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Pearce House is a two story frame I-House on Crystal Beach Road. The house faces north with the main gable running east/west.

The three bay by one room main block has a two story two bay by one room ell addition to the south. The house rests on a fieldstone foundation and the weatherboard siding is covered with aluminum. The steeply pitched roof is covered with seamed tin.

The north (main) facade is the expected three bays with central entrance. The sash have been replaced on the first floor but the 6/6 sash remain on the second floor. The eaves are extended and the soffits sloped.

There is a single 6/6 sash on each floor of the west end and two four pane attic lights flank the exterior block stack.

The east end is window first or second floor fenestration. There are two 2/2 sash that flank the interior end brick stack.

The south side is primarily covered with the ell addition. A shed porch with square posts protects the side kitchen entrance and an adjacent 6/6 sash. The second floor is illuminated by a single 6/6 sash. The west end has a recent enclosed shed porch addition.

The interior of the main block has been partially remodeled. An enclosed central stair rises to the second floor and is flanked by single parlors. The door and window surrounds have a simple late 19th century molding. The west parlor mantel has a beveled edge surround with plain frieze with a small applied molding beneath the shelf. The baseboard has a typical ogee molded cap.

Various mid to late 19th century farm structures with no unusual construction or details are located south of the main house.

BUILDER/ARCHITECT

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Pearce house has no architectural significant details. The common house type is found throughout the county. This house has lost a good deal of its character through remodeling. The house does predate 1858 with its appearance on the Martenet map under Mrs. J. Pearce. Annie W. Pearce is designated at this spot in 1877. (Lake, Griffing, and Stevenson)
